

WELCOME TO ANGUILLA!

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

A valid US Passport with at least 6 months before expiration is required when traveling to Anguilla. Visitors are required to have a return or onward ticket. Green Card holders must have a valid Green Card and valid Passport from their country of origin. For those traveling with foreign Passports or Visas, it is advised to contact the appropriate Consulate or Embassy to ensure that you have the proper documentation for travel. Anguilla is an Overseas Territory of the United Kingdom; persons from Countries requiring Visas for Anguilla are allowed to enter the Island on a valid United Kingdom (UK) Visa. Travel that involves arrival into St. Maarten/St. Martin, a French Overseas Territory, would also require a valid Passport and/ or Visa good for 6 months before expiration. Please contact the appropriate Consulate or Embassy to ensure that you have the proper documentation for travel. A passport and/or Visa are required in either direction between the two countries as well. Note: all passengers departing Anguilla via either plane or boat/ferry are required to pay a $23-28 per person cash Anguilla Departure Tax.

ARRIVAL BY AIR

Anguilla's Clayton J. Lloyd Airport is serviced by flights from San Juan – approximately one hour of flying time. For the ultimate in luxury and comfort, Tradewind Aviation is the way to travel. Featuring modern Pilatus PC-12 aircraft (flown by two pilots) the plane is pressurized and completely air conditioned. There is a private lounge in San Juan and an option for full VIP Meet & Greet Service. With several flights a day, this is THE choice for the discerning traveler. Visit www.flytradewind.com to reserve your flights.

Seaborne Airlines is also offering service via San Juan and offers code-share partnership with several US Airlines. Visit www.seaborneairlines.com for the latest schedules and rates.

TRANSFER OPTIONS FROM PRINCESS JULIANA AIRPORT IN ST. MAARTEN

Island Representatives VIP Service: Complimentary "Meet & Greet" in St. Maarten:

All guests using the semi-private or private boat services will be greeted by an Island Representatives Agent at Princess Juliana Airport, St. Maarten. This greeting commences in the main arrival area after exiting the Baggage Claim area. Guests will identify that greeter who will be holding a CuisinArt sign with their names. The guests and luggage will be transported by car to the dock which is across the street from the Terminal. Other guests departing St. Maarten onto Anguilla via the regular ferry service will be placed in a taxi after the greeting, and the taxi driver will be compensated by the guests.
